WORKSHOP OPPORTUNITIES FOR TEENS

IN THE LINNAEUS TEACHING GARDEN

Weekly:

June 13 – August 1st Every Wednesday (except July 4th) work in the garden with our summer intern, Tyler Yeates (left). Small jobs, large jobs – whatever you want to do for as long as you want. Hours flexible between 9:00 AM and 4:00 PM. Sign up at linnaeusteens@tulsagardencenter.com by Tuesday at noon prior to the Wednesday you want to come.

Workshops:

21 June 2018 Thursday 1-3pm in the Helmerich Horticulture Center

Celebrate the Summer Solstice as you plant an Easy-care Succulent Container Garden to take home. Bring your favorite container to plant or use one of ours. We will supply the soil, succulent plants and the how-to. Then party in the Garden to Welcome Summer.

RSVP to linnaeusteens@tulsagardencenter.com only 15 invitations are available. Sign up by Sunday, 17 June to secure your place.

21 July 2018 Saturday 9:30-11am in the Butterfly Garden just west of the Barn

Come to the newest garden of the Linnaeus Teaching Gardens for All About Butterflies. Learn more about butterfly migration, be fascinated once again by the miraculous transformation from egg to caterpillar to butterfly, identify other pollinators and the plants that attract them to a garden and much more.

RSVP to linnaeusteens@tulsagardencenter.com by Wednesday, 18 July.

7 August 2018 Tuesday 9:30-11am in the Helmerich Horticultural Center

Through The Lens will provide you with information about taking photographs with your camera and/or a smart phone. You will have some time to take pictures in the Linnaeus Teaching Garden putting the principles of taking pictures into practice.

RSVP to linnaeusteens@tulsagardencenter.com by Friday, 3 August.
